Advertising Policy

The Woodside Plantation Property Owners' Association sells newsletter advertising space for the convenience of Woodside property owners and to offset printing and mailing costs.

The WPPOA does not endorse any advertiser. It is the property owner's responsibility to check references and/or performance records.

If the WPPOA receives a written complaint from a property owner about unsatisfactory services from an advertiser, it reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to refrain from and/or resume publication of further advertising.

By advertising in our newsletter, advertisers acknowledge the rights and privileges of the WPPOA in determining ad content. Advertising fees will not be refunded if ads are pulled due to complaints received.

You will be required to sign a copy of our advertising policy before advertising.
